TEXT

“Dear Matafele Peinam” by Kathy Jetñil-Kijiner

dear matafele peinam,

you are a seven month old sunrise of gummy smiles you are bald as an egg and bald as the buddha you are thighs that are thunder and shrieks that are lightning so excited for bananas, hugs and our morning walks past the lagoon

dear matafele peinam,

i want to tell you about that lagoon that lucid, sleepy lagoon lounging against the sunrise men say that one day

that lagoon will devour you

they say it will gnaw at the shoreline chew at the roots of your breadfruit trees gulp down rows of your seawalls and crunch your island's shattered bones they say you, your daughter and your granddaughter, too will wander rootless

with only a passport to call home

dear matafele peinam,

don't cry

mommy promises you

no one
will come and devour you

no greedy whale of a company sharking through political seas no backwater bullying of businesses with broken morals no blindfolded bureaucracies gonna push this mother ocean over
the edge

no one's drowning, baby
no one's moving
no one's losing
their homeland
no one's gonna become a climate change refugee

or should i say
no one else

to the carteret islanders of papua new guinea and to the taro islanders of the solomon islands i take this moment
to apologize to you
we are drawing the line here because baby we are going to fight your mommy daddy

bubu jimma your country and president too we will all fight

and even though there are those hidden behind platinum titles who like to pretend
that we don't exist
that the marshall islands

kiribati
maldives
and typhoon haiyan in the philippines and floods of pakistan, algeria, colombia and all the hurricanes, earthquakes, and tidalwaves didn't exist

there are those
who see us

hands reaching out
fists raising up
banners unfurling
megaphones booming
and we are
canoes blocking coal ships
we are
the radiance of solar villages
we are
the rich clean soil of the farmer's past
we are
petitions blooming from teenage fingertips
we are
families biking, recycling, reusing, engineers dreaming, designing, building, artists painting, dancing, writing and we are spreading the word and there are thousands out on the street marching with signs

hand in hand
chanting for change NOW and they're marching for you, baby they're marching for us

because we deserve to do more than just survive
we deserve
to thrive

dear matafele peinam,

you are eyes heavy
with drowsy weight
so just close those eyes, baby and sleep in peace

because we won't let you down you'll see

Dear Matafele Peinam
